Council was updated on the recommendations that were given at the Ragbrai planning meeting in Ames on April 7th. Litwiller explained that she would like to get the vendor fees set and also decide what the city would like to donate. She would also like the council to decide how the Ragbrai meetings should continue. If the meetings continue like planned the city will have to continue paying council members and city clerk for said meetings and It's not really in the budget. McCain & Philpot decided to be in charge of forming the committee and scheduling the meetings. McCain explained that there will be a Ragbrai Vendor Meeting with Ed Twedt that all vendors should attend on April 19th at 6:00pm in the Council Chambers. They will discuss vendor fees and also food items for vendors. McCain made a motion for up to $5,000 be donated by the city for necessities, Philpot seconded and all voted aye.
